398 MAYOR KEEPS CLOSED
DOOR ON WOMEN

Thompson Has the Big Say-so and Can Get Fair Play Between Cops and Strikers, Say Women—Unable to Lay Their Evidence Before "Big Bill"

Fifteen women's organizations, clubs and leagues shut out from Mayor Thompson's office want Chicago to know exactly what they were going to see the mayor about. Their committee of fifteen wanted to put this to the mayor:

"You did great work in settling the car strike. We want you to settle the garment strike the same way if you can. But that isn't the big principle.

"We wish to point out to you that you are the responsible head of the city police department. As such we want you to know that there is bloodshed and violence inflicted by policemen on striking garment workers,

We want you to go out for yourself and see how much truth there is to these sworn statements of women and girls brutalized, one with a broken breastbone, others with swollen lips, others marked with black and blue finger prints of policemen's hands on their arms."

Mrs. James W. Morrison, chairman of committee, said today that no matter how the strike might be settled it is a big question for all time with Chicago women as to whether police, under the mayor direction shall use the kind of violence they have lately on women and girls.

Miss Edith Wyatt was asked by a Day Book reporter whether the sto-
